When it comes to crunching numbers and having a creative flair for accounting matters, we can get a bit reliant on our internal advisor, Hanna. Since graduating from her Bachelors of Accounting in 2009 from the Holmes Institute, Hanna has garnered substantial experience in accounting firms and in-house bookkeeping.

Although at first glance she appears to be demure and reserved, you'll be surprised at how resilient Hanna is and how much of a fighter's attitude she has. In her pursuit of success she lives and breathes by the following motto:

“WHEN YOU FALL DOWN, YOU GOTTA PICK YOURSELF BACK UP AND KEEP ON GOING ‘CAUSE SOMETIMES THERE ISN'T GOING TO BE A PERSON THERE TO DO IT FOR YOU.”

And in that pursuit, she has her sights of becoming a BAS Agent by 2020. But she doesn't just preoccupy herself with punching numbers in the calculator. Hanna enjoys singing and is a self-confessed foodie, so when she's had her fill of crunching numbers, she's busy exploring the city munching on gourmet delicacies.
