Wilyen is the go to guy at the office. There's no problem or matter he won't take on, and when he does, he'll come up with a solution inside or outside the box. With a pragmatic approach as a lawyer, he's a "no B.S." kind of guy and will find the quickest and best result from point A to point B. And together with a strong focus on customer service, he'll go above and beyond to meet his client's expectations.

Wilyen is a bit of a perfectionist and used to have OCD as a kid, but that's kinda what you want in a lawyer right? He looks at the ins-and-outs of any problem and approaches it like a puzzle in order to solve it. But he's a bit of a puzzle himself – one we cannot quite figure out.

Wilyen has a fear of heights but enjoys indoor rock climbing and skydiving. He's a bit of a timid guy, but once he warms up, he's hard to keep quiet. But at the end of the day, Wilyen is the quiet and diligent achiever of the group who has (for some reason) the golden touch of settling his matters.

And it's true what they say...

"IF THERE'S A WILL, THERE'S A WAY".
